CHENANGO

We have good authority for believing that the first settler in the township of Chenango was Thomas Gallup, who moved into the territory in 1787. He did not stay long, however. In the same year Col. William Rose, accompanied by his brother, established himself on the site of Nimmonsburg, acquiring title to land from the Indians then inhabiting that section.

Being a well favored country, with rich soil and pleasant surroundings, the valley soon began to fill up with a sturdy company of settlers, not a few of whom had been patriots of the Revolution. We shall tarry to name a few of these pioneers: William Hall, Jedediah Seward, John Newell, Jared Page, Stephen and Henry Palmer, Foster Lilly, James Temple, Nathaniel Bishop, Henry French, Nathaniel Lee, and Tyrus Page. Henry French in 1788 built a sawmill at Castle Creek and carried it on for some time. This was one of the first industries of the township.

Chenango township was one of the original towns of the county of Tioga. How extensive its lines then were, may be seen from the fact that it embraced all the territory now belonging to the townships of Windsor, Colesville, Sanford, Conklin, Fenton, Binghamton and Dickinson. One after another these townships were cut off from Chenango, in the order named above, leaving the township robbed of its original territory; but in 1808 a section of Union was annexed to it, and in 1856 a large portion of Maine was added to it. As then constituted, Chenango had an acreage of 21,099. It is a fact of interest that the first settlers in Chenango had been settlers in Union, while those who came subsequent to 1808 with the exception of those which came in from Maine, were pioneers of Chenango. February 16th, 1791, the township of Chenango was established, and in the April following the first town meeting was held. Because of loss of the original records it is impossible to give the names of the officers chosen at that time.

The fluctuations in population which have attended the progress of the township of Chenango are of historical interest, as showing the destiny of a town situated near to a growing city, without manufacturing resources, but exclusively engaged in agricultural pursuits. In 1790 Chenango numbered 45 inhabitants. Ten years later its population had increased to 1,149; in 1810, 1,360; in 1820, 2,626; in 1830, 3,716; in 1840, 5,475; in 1850, 8,734; in 1860, 1,841; in 1870, 1,680; in 1880, 1,590; in 1890, 1,448; in 1900, 1,372; in 1910, 1,237; in 1920, 1,183.

Chenango provided educational facilities for its children at a very early date, as we conclude from the fact that in 1807 the township contained eighteen school districts. Mason Whiting and Oliver Ely were at that time school commissioners. In 1838 the number of children of school age was 1,372. Twenty years later the number of districts had been reduced to twelve, in which there were only 470 boys and girls of school age.

Chenango has a number of villages and hamlets to which we ought to give passing attention. Prominent among these is Castle Creek, located in the northwestern part of the township. It is probable that Josiah West was the pioneer settler here, he having migrated to this section prior to the beginning of the eighteenth century. The first mill here was built by Ira Keeler, and the first store by William West. A postoffice was established here through the instrumentality of Josiah West, and has been maintained since. The religious interests of the village have been and still are cared for by a Baptist and a Methodist church. A good common school is also supported at Castle Creek.

Glen Castle, Katteilville, Chenango Bridge and West Chenango are other smaller villages in Chenango township, and part of the village of Chenango Forks likewise lies in this township.

We find a number still living in the township of Chenango who trace their ancestry to pioneers of the Chenango valley. Among these are the Aldermans, the Dunhams, the Kattells, of Katteliville, the Norths and the Booths. In regard to the name last mentioned, we note that Hawley S. Booth is a direct descendant of one of the oldest families in the town of Chenango, and his mother one of the oldest surviving members of the family. Mrs. Booth, wife of Hawley Booth, says, "Grandfather Stone was one of the first if not the first settler in the town, and George Munsell and James Munsell were descendants of this grandfather Stone. They were my husband's uncles." Mrs. Booth is now town clerk of Chenango residing at Chenango Bridge.

At the present time the value of the real property of Chenango is $935,320, and the value of the franchises $102,548. The following are the present officers of the township: Supervisor, George F. Briggs; town clerk, Mrs. Lula M. Booth;' assessors, Harry Mix, Henry M. Fuller, Anthony North; superintendent of highways, Ervin F. Swift; justices of the peace, Hawley S. Booth; Louisa Ross, Harry Peters; collector, William Minor; superintendent of the poor, Elmer Brotzman; constables, Harry C. Mix, Weldon Dowd, William Minor, Ralph Clark.

HISTORY OF THE WEST FAMILY

Thomas West was born in England in 1741 and died at Castle Creek, New York in April 1828. Thomas was born three years after the birth of George III of England and died eight years after George III, during the reign of George IV of England. Thomas was sent to America with the British army that was to subjugate the American patriots fighting against taxation without representation. He deserted the British army and fought with the Americans. He was occupied mainly in training recruits for the American army. The well-marked grave of Thomas West may be seen in the little church yard at Castle Creek, New York. Inscribed on the same stone with Thomas West is Wife Mary, died May 1821 in 78th year. Thomas owned ten acres of land at Castle Creek. He had fought to free this country from England, and had lived to see England lose a second war to her former colonies (war of 1812-1814).

Thomas and Mary West had a son Josiah and a daughter, Fanny, ~~in~~ also a son Benjamin. Fanny settled in the lake country near Ontario. Josiah like his Father Thomas, seems to have had much energy and pioneer spirit. After the Revolutionary war the West family settled in Vermont where the men sawed pine lumber with a whip-saw. Later, the family moved to White's Burrough near Utica, New York and from there in about 1814 to Castle Creek, New York where the family took deep root. However, when I visited the site in June 1949, I found no living Wests but many West graves in the little cemetery back of the M. E. church. I found also the old family building where Harriet West Hayes Boardman and Libby Hayes had lived and the Old postoffice building once owned by West family.

Josiah, son of Thomas, had four sons and three daughters. Castle Creek was a wilderness when the family moved there. They cut a road through from Chenango Forks of the Susquehanna and moved into an old logging cabin which was without doors or windows. Hemlock trees grew to within a few feet of the doorway and the wilderness stretched for miles around. Josiah bought land. His Holdings extended from the foot of Cherry Ridge (Gaylord) Hill to the top of the big hill on the north of the present ~~villiax~~ villiage of Castle Creek. The Josiah West family brought seeds for a nursery from White's Burrough. They planted an orchard ~~frmxxx~~ cleared a farm, built homes and conducted a tavern or store.

At the store calico, grain, meal, etc., were traded for hardwood ashes furs, and pails of butter. Potash, which found a ready sale in England, was leached from the ashes, and furs found a ready sale at the Atlantic Seaboard where they were carried by vessels to European and Asia to markets. The store meal was dipped from a bin with a scoop. The West family mixed bacon drippings with butter to extend the flavor. Josiah West was an elder of the Presbyterian church which was established where the M. E. Church now stands. (My father Josiah West, grandson of Josiah West Senior, said he liked his grandfather Josiah very much but he did not like his father William West, who was harsh and heartless like the New England puritans).

The West family went to Binghamton to service before the Castle Creek church was built and there William, oldest son of Josiah, met Mary Smith, a school teacher whose home was in Windsor. They were married in 1817. They went to housekeeping in a little log school house at the foot of Cherry Ridge Hill. Their first child, Rachel, was born there in 1818. The next year William built the first frame house in that vicinity, the foot of Spencer Hill. It had one room 16 X 18 feet with a large fire place chimney on the outside. A buttery was built beside it and not long after a lean to for a bedroom and a square room for a loom. Harriet and Sahah were born in this house.

In 1822 William experienced religion and desired to enter the ministry so he moved his family to Hamilton, New York and went to the Baptist Theological Seminary there. Two children, Warren and Martha were born there, but must have died in infancy as I find nothing more regarding them. William with wife Mary and three daughters, Rachel, Harriet, and Sarah, returned to the frame house at Castle Creek where Nathaniel Kendrick was born in 1826. Nathaniel Kendrick died in East Portland, Oregon in about 1890. ~~The next year~~ ? William went to Killawog to preach in a Baptist Church. William W. was born ~~there~~ in 1829. (This is the William West who died at Scappose in 19-? and who gave the 3 acre site of Scappoose to the R. R. for the priviledge of naming the town)

William I came back to Castle Creek and moved into his father's tavern, while his father lived in Williams frame house. Josiah senior later built a house of his own and William I moved in with him. While William's family lived in the tavern Josiah II, Mary Achlisa, and Laura were born, 1831,33,36. Laura died in infancy. Besides managing the store, William taught school, preached on Sunday and wrote a book of sermons. He had joined the Presbyterian church while at Killawog and gave considerable to the building of the Presbyterian church at Castle Creek. His daughters Rachel and Harriet and brother, Orlando and sister Caroline as well as himself were charter members. Josiah senior was an elder of this church.

Our grandmother, Mary Smith West, wife of William West, the school teacher of Windsor must have been a wonderful woman. She taught school for $15.00 per month and paid fifty cents a yard for calicoto make herself a dress. Calico was a luxury as the most of her clothes were homespun. Grandmother had ten children. She moved around with her farmer, preacher, school-teacher, store keeper husband from log cabin in the wilderness of New York to frame house and to store and again to wilderness in Wisconsin. She cooked, carded wool, wove cloth, made candles, made soap from ashes and grease, and she must have sorrowed over loss of three babes and sickness of others. I have heard father say that his brother William almost died with pneumonia when the school house fire place was closed for an iron stove. Grandmother had asthma so bad in her declining years that she slept in a chair instead of a bed. She was cared for by her daughter, Sahah (Asher).

Grandmother's work had been somewhat lightened through bearing three girls and then giving each girl a boy for special care as the three boys appeared in succession. Mary Achlisa, the youngest girl lamented thet she had no special baby to care for and was given a wooden doll when she wanted a meat baby. Grandmother was proud to state that she was English.

William West senior seems to have been a restless soul. What made him move to Wisconsin I do not know. It may have been owing to expectations that Congress would pass a Homestead law or to farm better soil, or it might have been GO PREACH!. Our family tradition runs that he built the first Presbyterian Church in Wisconsin, it being constructed of brick, I presume at the site later called Ladoga, of Fondeelac county. How the family got from New York to Wisconsin, via the Great Lakes, I do not know. Of the immediate family of William only Harriet remained at the old homesite for her whole lifetime. She married a near neighbor- Hayes and after his death, Boardman. She raised a school teacher daughter, Mary (Stackpole) and a son, Eugene, a Doctor, (whose son) was later Ambassadore to Spain. Rachel, the eldest child of William and Mary, married a near neighbor Rhuben Lilly and moved to Kansas and later Missouri. Her eldest son, Watson sailed into the Columbia with his family in 1872 and after some looking around settled on the Shoalwater Bay in Washington Territory. His world circling daughter, May lived on the old homesite until at least ~~now~~, 1950. Her sister and brothers near by. Rachel, the mother died on the way to visit her son and was buried in a Washington cemetery. Born in the wilderness of N. Y. in 1818, died in Astoria and buried in the wilderness of Washington in 1888.

The three sons of William the preacher, Nathaniel Kendrick, William W. and Josiah, followed the parents to Wisconsin. William married there and after losing his wife married a widow with two children. Her husband had died crawling on his hands and knees in a circle between his house and barn during a blinding blizzard. Kendrick also married in Wisconsin and his childred were born xx there, I believe.

Josiah, son of William, and Mary Aschia at ended New York central College where Josiah cut wood for 50 cents a cord and milked cows he took to the college with him to pay expenses. Latin and Greek were the main subjects taught at t at time. The harsh religious life at home, hard studies at school, the inherited pioneer spirit together x with budding love caused Mary Achsa to break away. She put on pants when women's feet were supposed to be sown to their voluminous skirts and ran away with a Mr. Brooks They staked a prospective homestead in central Kansas "bleeding Kansas" a border state between the divided North and South. Brooks, a follower of John Brown, soon died and Mary Achsa put her belongings and little daughter Ellen in a wagon and drove to the West home in Wisconsin. Later Mary Achisa married John Barrick and raised a hardy family of five children in pioneer Missouri. Among Mary Achisa's grandchildren are teachers of higher learning, a minister, sheriff, historian, and a trained nurse and other very valuable citizens. In fact I believe her progeny are the most useful American Citizens of any and of the Thomas West decsendents.

The first West to come to Oregon was Josiah; with two friends Wyeth and ? Groves he rode horseback from Wisconsin to the Willamette Valley, in 1856.? He acted as chain man in Eastern Oregon surveys; put in crops for some valley farmers and attended Tualatin Academy in 1861- to brush up he said. He taught a country school and in 1864 married Lamara Harrison who had crossed the plains by oxteam with her parnets in 1846 when she was two years old. She, to, had attended. Tualatin College and taught school. Josiah and Lamira farmed for a time on Sauve's Island, bought land of Lamira's miller father at Mountaindale and tried the Palouse country in Eastern Washington territory. Here the family of three children enlarged to nine, the six humdred forty acres to two thousand acres, well stocked with many cattle, sheep, horses and hogs. The Farm was financed chiefly by a cheese factory.

William W. son of William the preacher brought his family of wife and step children and his own small children to Oregon in ?. He bought the Thomas McKay farm at Scappoose. His farm grew to contain many adjoining farms which were plentifully stocked with cows, horses, sheep and hogs. He began selling his produce in Portland at an early date by way of a rowboat.

Nathaniel Kendrick brought his family of wife small children to Oregon in about 18751 He opened a store in East Portland,where the end of the Morrison street bridge was located on his property he became wealthy over night. He was a shrewd dealer and retained his early religious teachings to a greater degree than his brothers William and Josiah. Quotation from Nathaniel Kendrick "If he can't eat what I eat he can go some place else".

Some notes on the pioneer Harrison and West families-----

John and Mary Harrison brought their family from Iowa to Oregon in 1846 by wagon train on the Oregon Trail. There were many hardships, most of their livestock died or was lost, and we are told that by the time they reached The Dalles on the Columbia River they had only one ox left to pull a cart piled high with family belongings including millstones. The Barlow Trail toll road had recently been opened around the south side of Mt.Hood over the Cascade Range, so the family decided to follow that route to the Willamette Valley rather than risk the dangerous Columbia River passage by flatboat or raft.

Lamira was only two and a half years old but we were told that she walked most of the Barlow Trail clinging to her mother's skirts while her mother carried baby William.

The family settled in Washington County a few miles from Hillsboro. Lamira attended Pacific University in Forest Grove. She and Josiah West were married in Washington County August 27, 1864. Josiah, born in Castle Creek, New York in 1831, had moved with his family to Wisconsin and later, at 21 years of age, and accompanied by a brother, had come west on horseback.

Josiah and Lamira lived for a short time in Eastern Washington near Spokane where Lamira was frightened a number of times by roving Indians. Later they lived in Columbia and Washington counties where their three oldest children were born. In 1872 the family moved to the Clatsop Plains area of Clatsop County on the Oregon coast where the other six of their nine children were born. The family home was about a mile from the beach on the shores of a lake that became known as West Lake. Josiah raised beef and dairy cattle, horses, sheep and hogs, had a cheese factory, and operated a mercantile store and meat market in Seaside. Late in life he experimented successfully with a cranberry bog.

At the home site, in addition to the large 14-room house of two and one-half stories plus a tower, built in 1890, there were a cow barn, horse barn, blacksmith shop, slaughter house, the cheese factory, and a number of shelters for small animals . Fond 5 The site is now (1970) the community center known as Westlake. None of the original buildings remains, the house having been razed in 1946.

The following facts were given by Mrs. Harriet Hayes Boardman to her daughter Mary Stackpole in October 1900 at Castle Creek, NeywYork. (Copied by Marion Fulkerson, January 1967)

About 1814, Josiah West, I son of Thomas West, came from near Utica at White's Burrough (whence they came from Vermont) to Castle Creek. It was then a wilderness and they cut the first road through from Chenango Forks.

They found a log cabin where Anthony North's house stands (1900). It had been used as a logging camp, and was without doors or windows. This they repaired. Hemlock trees stood within a few feet of the house and stretched on for miles around. There was a road from Whitney's Point to Binghamton through Hyde Street to what was later Asa Lyon's place on Adam's Street, and from there through to the Oak Hill road past where Richard Knapp and the Stoddards and Blairs lived later.

Toward Binghamton, Thomas French lived where French's Mills were at Glen Castle.

About ___?___ the father of Alva, Oramus, Deborah, Hannah, Jonathan, and Ruben Lily lived nearly two miles south of Castle Creek where John Cunningham lived for many years, just below where Willis Blair lives now(19000.

Not much later Phineas Spencer came and built a log cabin on Spencer Hill.

Josiah West I bought land on the west side of the road extending from the foot of Cherry Ridge (Gaylord) Hill to the top of the big hill on the north of the present village of Castle Creek.

They went to Cape Street --now Port_____--to service on Sunday and there William West, the oldest son of Josiah West I, became acquainted with Mary Smith, a school teacher whose home was in Winsor and he was married to her in 1817.

They went to housekeeping in a little log schoolhouse at the foot of Cherry Ridge Hill--west side of road- and their first child -Rachel- was born in 1818. The next year William built a house on the south side of the Spencer road at the foot of the hill.

It was the first frame house in that vicinity and was about 16X18-- one room, a large fireplace (chimney out doors)-and a buttery beside it. Soon after he added a "lean to" for a bedroom, and a square room which was used for a loom.

In this house Harriet and Sarah were born.

In 1822 William experienced religion and desired to enter the ministry, so he moved with his family to Hamilton, N.Y., and went to the Baptist Theological Seminary there.

While there Warren and Martha were born.

He returned to Castle Creek in 1826, and Nathaniel Kendrick was born in the frame house before mentioned.

The next year William went to Killawog to preach to a Baptist Church and there William W. was born, 1829.

William I came back to Castle Creek and moved into the tavern where his father (Josiah I) had been living. This tavern stood where Anthony North lives (1900).

Josiah III (Our grandfather - of Clatsop Plains) was born here, 1831, and Mary Achsa, 1833, and Laura 18

Josiah Sr. lived in the house on the Spencer road while his son William lived at the tavern.

Josiah Sr. built a new house where Mr. Newcome now lives (1900) and William came to live with him.

Josiah West Sr. had four sons and three daughters.

1 WILLIAM married Mary Smith and they had 10 children.

7 children of Josiah I

2 Sally married Wm. Cary. She was the mother of Caroline, Denison, Selendi0, Thomas, Martha, and Laura.

3 Hiram married Dolly Congdon.

4 Laura married Wm. Cary after Sally died, and they had one girl and two boys.

5 Josiah II first married Deborah Wood and their children were Jerome, who was killed by lightning; Francis; Elijah, who was accidently shot; Josiah, and Lidia.

Josiah II afterward married Sabrina Wood and had two sons, Charles and Alfred.

7th Orlando?

6 Polly ?(Or, ~~is it Sally?~~) married Riley Parker and they had five children: George , Hi-- , Jane, Orlando, and Henry. Henry was among the missing after the battle of Bull Run. A comrade saw him fall, but that is all that is known of his fate. Orlando was killed when about 25 years old by a tree falling on him.

William West taught school in a school house in the Lily district where Dar Cook's tenement house stands. He took Rachel and Harriet with him in a one-horse wagon each day. This was after he came back from Killawog. He gave considerable toward building the Presbyterian Church that was built in 1831 where the M.E. Church now stands. He became a Presbyterian while at Killawog and he preached in this church at Castle Creek after it was built.

A Rev. Lockwood organized this Presbyterian church. Josiah I was an elder of the church and William and Orlando, his sons, and his granddaughters Rachel and Harriet West, and Caroline Cary were Charter members. This church was organized in the School House in the Lily District and they were Baptised in that creek close by the School House.

Josiah I had a sister Fanny who settled in the Lake Country (near Ontario).

Thomas West and wife, parents of Josiah West I, had ten acres where Eli Boardman lived from 1877 to April 1900, when he (died?).

Josiah I set out the orchard where Jerome Alderman lived till he died.

William, son of Josiah I, brought apple seeds with him from White's Borrough and planted them in a nursery he made back of where the M.E. Parsonage now is, and later he set out an orchard. with trees from this nursery back of the house he built on the Spencer Road.

Hiram West lived in a house he built opposite where Jerome Alderman lived later.

Josiah II lived in a house where Mr. Roe now lives..He also lived at one time in a house where Mr. Rockwood now lives, just south of the Potato Creek. He lived at Conklin a few years and after William I went to Wisconsin, he lived with Josiah I at the foot of Cherry Ridge.Hill.

Miles Smith, a brother of Mary Smith who married William West, came to Castle Creek 1816 (?) and bought the place now owned by Harriet (West) Boardman and Libbie Hayes.

(Note: Libbie Hayes was an adopted daughter of Harriet West Hayes Boardman.)

Hiram West lived in a house he built opposite where Jerome Alderson lived later.

About 1814, Josiah West, son of Thomas West, came from near Utica at White's Burrough (whence they came from Vermont) to Castle Creek. It was then a wilderness and they cut the first road through from Chenango Forks.

They found a log cabin about where Anthony North's house stands (1900). It had been used as a logging camp, and was without doors or windows. This they repaired. Hemlock trees stood within a few feet of the house and stretched on for miles around. There was a road from Whitney's Point to Binghamton through Hyde Street to what was later Asa Lyon's place on Adam's Street, and from there through to the Oak Hill road past where Richard Knapp and the Stoddards and Blairs lived later.

Toward Binghamton, Thomas French lived where French's Mills were at Glen Castle.

About _____ the father of Alva, Orsmus, Deborah, Hannah, Jonathan, and Ruben Lily lived nearly two miles south of Castle Creek where John Cunningham lived for many years, just below where Willis Blair lives now (1900).

Not much later Phineas Spencer came and built a log cabin on Spencer Hill.

Josiah West bought land on the west side of the road extending from the foot of Cherry Ridge (Gaylord) Hill to the top of the big hill on the north of the present village of Castle Creek.

They went to Cape Street, now Fort?-ne, to service on Sunday and there William West, the oldest son of Josiah West I, became acquainted with Mary Smith, a school teacher whose home was in Windsor and he was married to her in 1817.

They went to housekeeping in a little log school house at the foot of Cherry Ridge Hill - west side of the road- and their first child, Rachel, was born in 1818. The next year William built a house on the south side of the Spencer road at the foot of the hill.

It was the first frame house in that vicinity and was about 16 x 18 - one room, a large fire-place (chimney outdoors)- and a buttery beside it. Soon after he added a"lean to" for a bed room, and a square room which was used for a loom.

In this house Harriet and Sarah were born.

In 1822 William experienced religion and desired to enter the ministry, so he moved with his family to Hamilton, N. Y., and went to the Baptist Theological Seminary there.

While there Warren and Martha were born.

He returned to Castle Creek in 1826, and Nathaniel Kendrick was born in the frame house before mentioned.

The next year William went to Killawog to preach to a Baptist Church and there William W. was born, 1829.

William I came back to Castle Creek and moved into the tavern where his father, (Josiah) had been living.

This tavern stood where Anthony North lives, (1900)

Josiah III, was born here, 1831, and Mary Achsa, 1833, and Laura, 1836. Josiah Sr. lived in the house on the Spencer road while his son William lived at the tavern.

Josiah Sr., built a new house where Mr. Newcome now lives (1900) and William came to live with him.

Josiah West Sr. had four sons and three daughters.

WILLIAM married Mary Smith and they had 10 children.

SALLY married Wm Cary. She was mother of Caroline Denise, Selendi O., Thomas, Martha, and Laura.

HIRAM married Dolly Conglon.

LAURA married Wm. Cary after Sally died, and they had one girl and two boys.

JOSIAH II first married Deborah_____ and their children were Jerome, who was killed by lightening; Francis; Elijah, who was accidentally shot; Josiah, and Lidia. Josiah II afterward married Sabrina Wood and had two sons, Charles and Alfred.

POLLY married Riley Parker and they had five children, George, H---, Jane, Orlando and Henry. Henry was among the missing after the battle of Bull Run. A comrade saw him fall, but that is all is known of his fate.

ORLANDO was killed when about 15 years old by a tree falling on him.

William West taught school in the Lily district in a school house where Dan Cook's tenement house stands. He took Rachel and Harriet with him in a one horse wagon each day. This was after he came back from Killawog.

He gave considerable toward building the Presbyterian Church that was built in 1831, where the M. E. Church now stands. He became a Presbyterian while at Killawog, and he preached in this church at Castle Creek after it was built.

A Rev. Lockwood organized this Presbyterian Church. Josiah I was an Elder of the church and William and Orlando, his sons, and his Grand-daughter's Rachel and Harriet West, and Caroline Cary were charter members. This church was organized in the school house in the Lily district and they were baptized in that creek close by the school house.

Josiah I had a sister Fanny who settled in the Lake Country near Ontario.

Thomas West and wife, Parents of Josiah West I, had ten acres where Eli Boardman lived from 1877 to April 1900 when he died.

Josiah I set out the orchard where Jerome Alderman lived till he died.

William, son of Josiah I brought apple seeds with him from White's Borrough and planted them in a nursery he made back of where the M. E. Parsonage now is, and later he set out an orchard with trees from this nursery back of the house he built on the Spencer road.

He lived at Conklin a few years and after William I went to Wisconsin, he lived with Josiah I at the foot of Cherry Ridge Hill.

Miles Smith a brother of the Mary Smith who married William West came to Castle Creek in 1818 and brough the place now owned by Harriet (West) Boardman and Libbie Hayes.

The above factswere given by Mrs. Harriet N. Boardman to her daughter Mary H. Stockpole in October 1900 at Castle Creek.

Thomas West, Born in England, 1741; Married Molly ---; died Castle Creek, N. Y., March 12, 1828.

Josiah West, born April 7, 1774; married on May 30, 1793, Martha Darwin, born March 14, 1772; resident of Bennington, Vt.

William West, born, Sept. 5, 1795; married on May 8, 1817 to Mary Smith; resident of Castle Creek, N. Y.

Josiah West, born March 11, 1831, Castle Creek; married August 27, 1864, in Washington county, Ore., to Lamira Bedler Harrison, born Feb. 7, 1844, Jefferson county, Iowa. Josiah died Aug. 12, 1920 and Lamira Nov. 18, 1916.

Lamira was the daughter of John Harrison, born 1798 in Pennsylvania, died 1873 in Washington county, Ore., and Mary Smith, born Dec. 29, 1818, Barren county, Kentucky. One report says they were married Sept. 21, 1841 in Van Buren county, Iowa. The report also lists John Harrison's birth as March 14, 1802 in Fayette county, Pa.

One report I saw said Josiah and Lamira were married in Forest Grove

Thomas West's military service was listed as follows:

Capt. Josiah Russell's Company of Rangers, Oct. 4 (9), 1776 to Dec. 2, 1776
Col. Jonathan Chase's Regiment of New Hampshire Militia, May 7, 1777 to June 16, 1777
Capt. Peleg Matteson's Company of Vermont Militia, 1781, 10 days, for march north from Shaftsbury, Vt. State of Vermont Revolutionary War Rolls. Also in the company were Eben R. West, 15 days, and James West, 11 days.

There are reports that Thomas West was drafted into the British Army because of the American Revolution, became in favor of the Americans and deserted the British to support the colonials and was assigned to duties in ~~which~~ the militia in which he would not be in danger of being captured by the British and shot as a deserter. It could be that this is true. However, I noted that his son Josiah was born in April 1774, which would put Thomas in Vermont in about August, 1773. Since I do not have a date for his marriage to Molly (or Mary Joy) or any information as to whether they had any previous children, I do not have any good clue as to when he actually came to America. A note, written by Aunt Rose, I think, which I just noticed said: "American officers realized if he were recaptured he would be shot as a deserter so kept him behind the lines training recruits at Ticonderoga, I think, Bennington, Vt. and Castle Creek and Binghampton, NY. Old tomb stones in church graveyard at Castle Creek." Maybe you can find the answers---Bennington is only about 38 or 39 miles from Scotia by NY 7 and Vt 9. Some of those old New England towns have records going back to about the second white man who arrived there.

HARRISONS---
I tried checking some of the Harrison geneologies in x Tacoma and Seattle libraries but all I found had to do with Virginia branches of the family and I didn't have time to dig in deep enough to find out whether the John Harrison family moved from Virginia to Pa. There were several families of Harrisons in VA. and Hordes of Wests there. Supporting the idea that the Harrisons came from Va. is a legend my mother told me. It was that one of our ancesters was descended from a relative of Pocahontas. Mom did not say that it was the almighty gospel truth.

I went to the Washington county courthouse in Hillsboro to try to get more information on John Harrison, particularly his parents' names, but their records vaults were being remodeled and the books were not available. Haven't been back since. Also, haven't written to Bennington or Fayette county, Pa.

Dear Mrs.Lloyd:

Thank you for your note of September 1st. I have not heard whether you obtained the grave inscription for Thomas West who was buried at Castle Creek,but since I did get it from Mrs.Corbin's notes,here it is:

"Thomas West died April ? 1828 aged 87
Mary,wife of Thomas West,died May ~~May~~ 21,? ae.78
Elijah,son of Josiah and Deborah West died March 12,1853
Deborah,wife of Josiah West died March 21,1841 ae.36."

That is as she had it in her books. I don't know why the two dates are incomplete. If possible,I would like to go up there myself,and perhaps take a picture. There are also these:

"Sally Wesy Cary,wife of William,died May 10,1827 ae.28
Orlando West killed by the fall of a tree Mar.10,1843 ae.25
Martha,wife of Josiah West died June 13,1845 ae.73
Hiram West died Jan.29,1874 aged 76
Dolly Congdon West,wife of Hiram died Aug.6,1871 ae.74."

Those are all in Castle Creek. I believe that a William West and wife are buried in Kirkwood village in my own town. I enclose a genealogical chart which I would like to have you fill out so I can get the picture more clearly for our local records, as well as possible further help to you.

Council of Appointment records show these:

Thomas West,ensign,Renss.Co.1795,Chas.Ferry,Captain.

None but the Wm.West in Washington Co.1802 & 1807 looks too probable.

I will send these on,and if you will send $2 and return the chart filled out as far as possible,I guess it will be satisfactory. Hoping to have been of real aid,

Sincerely,

I, Harriet N. (West/Hayes) Boardman, do affirm that I remember Thomas West and his death and buriel at Castle Creek, N.Y. on March 12th 1828 at the age of eighty-seven years. His tombstone erected there soon after has recorded on it that he was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. I know he was reported to have been a soldier in the Revolutionary War. I have heard him relate incidents of the War. He was a victim of the English method of impressment into service in their army as he was born in England, but he had no inclination to fight against America, so when the first opportunity presented itself he deserted the English and joined the American Army to help them in their fight for liberty. At the close of the War of the Revolution he settled at Bennington, Vermont, and in 1814 moved to Castle Creek, N.Y. His wife Molly West died there on April 30th 1822 aged seventy-eight years.

To Thomas and Molly West was born on April 7th 1774 at Bennington, Vermont, Josiah West. On May 30th 1793 Josiah West married Martha Dawin, who was born at Bennington on March 14th 1772. They, with his father & mother, moved to Castle Creek N.Y. in 1814 where they lived until death 1856 & when Josiah West moved to Michigan, where he died Aug. 10th 1858 aged eighty-four years.

To Josiah and Martha West were born six sons and four daughters. One of these sons, William West, was born in Vermont Sept. 5th 1775 and he married Mary Smith on May 8th 1817.

To them were born six daughters and four sons. The second of these daughters Harriet N. West was born at Castle Creek N.Y. Nov. 3rd 1819. Harriet N. West was married on Dec. 9th 1838 to Caleb F. Hayes and to them were born two sons and two daughters. The youngest daughter, Mary A. Hayes, was born March 18th 1860 and July 28, (1878 crossed out) 1886 was married to Geo. F. Stackpole.

Dear Mr. Stackpole:

Enclosed is a copy of my letter, dated October 7, 1957, which I sent to you in response to yours of October 3rd. Since we have not heard from you, I am wondering if my letter went astray in the mails or if you did send the diploma whether it has become lost. Our University Archivist, Mr. Williams, has never received it. We would appreciate hearing from you.

Dear Mr. Stackpole:

We shall be delighted to have your great grandfather's diploma for our Archives, and I want you to know how much we appreciate your thinking of us. In talking with the Archivist this morning, he asked me to tell you that he would be very happy to have you send along with it any information you have available about William West and his family background. There is a brief biographical sketch for him in our general Catalogue, but the information provided there is necessarily of the most limited type. May I suggest that you send the diploma, together with the biographical information, directly to Dr. Howard D. Williams, University Archivist. Thank you again for this most thoughtful gift.

Dear Madam:-

I was very glad to receive the blank concerning your grandfather, William West. You may be interested to know that according to our records he was a graduate of theinstitution in the class of 1825. The record as you have given it will answer our purpose very nicely. I should like to have the specific date of ordination and of his death. If you are able to get those for me before long, it will doubtless be in time to go in. With thanks for your assistance,

My dear Mr. Reed:

I have today received your letter dated February 18, 1958. By curious coincidence, I was awakened early this morning with the thought that I had not acknowledged your letter of October 7, 1957, nor sent to Dr. Williams my great grandfather's diploma. Please accept my apologies for the delay.

I had intended to have the diploma photographed so that I could have a copy of it. Would Dr. Williams be willing to have a photograph made and send to me? If so, I shall forward it to him without further delay.

Dr. Howard D. Williams

Colgate University

Dear Sir:

Under separate cover, I am sending to you by first class registered mail the diploma of my great grandfather, William West, concerning which I wrote to the University last Fall.

In Mr. Reed Alvord's letter to me of October 7, 1957, he stated that you would like me to send along any information which I might have about William West and his family background. I am uncertain what biographical information would be of interest to you. I have a Family Bible in which there is information as to the children of William West, and I also have some genealogical information which my mother collected years ago. Briefly, these are the facts:

One Thomas West came from Englad; he was born in 1741 and died on March 12, 1828. He married Mary Spear, who was born in 1744 and who died April 30, 1822. Their son, Josiah West, born April 7, 1774, died August 10, 1858, was the father of William West.

William West was born on September 5, 1795, and died on February 17, 1873.

On May 8, 1817, he married Mary Smith, who was born on July 13, 1793, and died on October 19, 1869.

William West and Mary Smith had ten children. Of these, his second child, Harriet Newell West, born November 3, 1819, and died on June 23, 1905, was my grandmother. She was named for Harriet Newell, a missionary to India. According to the "Lives of the Three Mrs. Judsons" by Arabella M. Willson, published 1855, Mr. and Mrs. Newell sailed for Calcutta in February, 1812, with Mr. Judson and his bride, Ann Hasseltine.

Of the various children of William West and Mary Smith, five were born before June, 1825, the date of the diploma of William West. He apparently went to Hamilton, New York, in 1822, taking with him his three oldest children; the next two children were born while he was living at Hamilton.

The third child of William West, Sarah, born July 10, 1821, married a Mr. Acker and lived and died in Wisconsin.

The eighth child, Josiah West, born March 11, 1831, went West shortly after the 49ers. To my knowledge, he was living in Clatsop, Oregon, as late as 1913.

My grandmother, Harriet N. West, married Caleb F. Hayes, and after his death, she married Eli Boardman. (One of her grandchildren is Carlton J. H. Hayes, formerly Professor of History at Columbia University.)

I am enclosing carbons of two letters which I found among my mother's papers and a copy of an affidavit made by my grandmother, Harriet Newell West Hayes Boardman, which my mother apparently obtained at the time she joined the Daughters of the Revolution, as well as a statement which I believe my grandmother made when my mother was making out a history of the Baptist Church at Castle Creek, New York. Much of what is in this will be of no interest to you (facts about the residences in 1900 of certain persons then living in Castle Creek), but I have underscored certain sentences that relate to William West. The enclosures are all duplicates which you need not return to me.

I have found among my mother's papers a mass of genealogical material about the descendants of William West. I doubt if you want it, but you may have it if you wish.

I find that my mother had some communication with Colgate University in 1905. I have found a letter from the Office of the Registrar, signed "R. W. Thomas" dated October 8, 1904, asking to have the specific date of ordination of William West and a notation in pen and ink on the bottom indicating her reply.

Colgate having been established as a Baptist Seminary, it occurs to me that you may know of some organization which may be interested in the history of the Baptist Church at Castle Creek, New York. If you do, will you let me know.

Do the records of Colgate show that any of the other children of Josiah West attended the Seminary, which is now Colgate? I have found a letter "J. West" headed McGrawville, November 30 (no year), stating, "We are having vacation now. School closed a week earlier than common. It will commence again 2 weeks from yesterday. If it will be convenient for you I will come down along the last of next week and make a visit," in which the writer refers twice to what "the President" had said. The only McGrawville which I find in my Postal Guide is in Indiana. However, the rubber stamp on the envelope seems to read McGrawsville, N. Y. Furthermore, in the dyys in which this letter was written (prior to 1857), one did not "come down" from Indiana for a visit during a two weeks' vacation from school. That has caused me to wonder if Josiah (son of William West) could also have attended the Baptist Seminary.

I am also enclosing a list of the children of William West and his wife, Mary, with the dates of their birth, and a list of the children of Josiah West and his wife, Martha, with the dates of their birth, both taken from the Family Bible.

Very truly yours,

Dear Miss Stackpole:

Enclosed are two positive photostats of your great-grandfather's diploma, one showing the seal and the other showing his name, William West. I hope that you like them.

Thank you very much for your letter of the 24th and the material on the West family you enclosed. I am glad to preserve this information in our files for anyone who may want to use it. If you have additional data on William West's career and why he went to Wisconsin I would be interested to have such material also.

The communication your mother had with R. W. Thomas in 1904 is explained by Professor Thomas's efforts to collect information on our alumni for the edition of the General Catalogue which was published in 1905.

I am quite sure that Rev. Edward C. Starr, Curator of the American Baptist Historical Society, 1100 South Goodman Street, Rochester 20, New York, would be pleased to have any information available on the history of the Castle Creek, New York, Baptist Church.

Our records show only one other West (Hezekiah) as having attended our institution prior to the Civil War; he was here in the early 1830's. Judging from the data you have sent me, I do not believe he was a member of your family.

The "McGrawville" in the letter signed by J. West undoubtedly refers to the village now known as McGraw in Cortland County near Cortland. The letter probably was written in the late 1840's or 1850's by a student at the New York Central College, a non-sectarian, co-educational, co-racial, manual labor institution which existed there from 1849 to 1861. It was founded by the American Baptist Free Mission Society, a "left-wing" reform group, and had two or three of our alumni on its faculty.

Again, many thanks for your contributions to the Colgate University Archives.

Sincerely yours,

Howard D. Williams

Hello,

In doing research on family members, I have a family record which states:

West, Thomas died 1828 age 87
West, Mary, his wife, died 182I age 78
Buried in Castle Creek Cemetary.

I need to know if I am correct in thinking that Castle Creek Cem. is in the town of Chenango, N.Y. and if so, do you have this particular cemetary listing ? If so, would you please send me a copy of the whole and complete gravestone inscription? FOR BOTH.

I have no idea what the charge is for this type of help but if you will advise me, I will remit same by return mail. I enclose a S.A.S.E. for the convenience of your reply, and my sincere thanks for your help in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Hello again,

I have just had an answer to my letter to Bob Bridges of Castle Creek and his 1850 census records are incomplete and we are working to reconstruct the West families of early Castle Creek. Would you please do me/us the kindness of sending copies of the following census records:

1850 - Town	Page	Name
Conklin	123	West, Josiah, Jr.
Conklin	123	West, Lydia
Colesville	161	West, William
Lisle	274	Pease, E.B. (Elisha B.)
Chenango	324	West, Josiah
	326	West, Hiram
	333	West, Silas
	338	West, Sarah
	339	West, Samantha J.
	354	West, William
	389	West, Sonja ?
Union	434	West, Orman
Vestal	465	West, David or Daniel

We are trying to determine if Eunice West wife of Elisha Pease is a dau. of Thomas & Mary "Molly" (Joy) West and it would be a great help if you would send me/us copies of the following census records:

PEASE, E.B. or Elisha and wife, Eunice

1820 - 1830 - 1840 and especially 1850 (above) 1855 Lisle ? and 1860 Chenango.
(Eunice a widow)

I have no idea what the fee for this will be but if you will advise me I will remit same by return mail. It goes without saying that your help in this research will be greatly appreciated. I enclose a S.A.S.E. for the convenience of your reply and my sincere thanks.

Dear Mrs. Guadagni,

I haven't had time to study it,but I think the enclosed material pertains to your West family - and there's more. I think the affidavit about Thomas West in the American Revolution is quite exciting.

We also have ten letters of Josiah West to Caleb and Harriet from Oregon, 1860-1900 about settling in the west. This all came to us from a Mrs. Stackpole (Syrena H.) an attorney in Riverhead, Suffolk Co., N.Y. whose hand-writing in 1970 was pretty shaky so she might not be around. Would you like copies of the letters - about 50 pages of material - we would charge you $5.00 plus postage.

I don't have copies of the originals of the 1850 census or any other census. The only run I have is the 1855 census and those have been handcopied by people in recent years and are not the originals. Originals would have to be gotten from the Broome County Clerk's office, Hawley St., Binghamton 13902, if they provide that service. The census books are large and not in good condition.

I hope the enclosed is of help to you. Let me know if you want copies of the letters.

Sincerely,

Dear Jack,

It was great to hear that you are finally getting around to retiring after so many years with GE. But what is the company going to do? From what I have heard about your work I get the idea that they will have a hard time finding a replacement with equivalent experience.

I can understand a lifelong resident of northern New York having misgivings about moving to such a different environment (I kinda hate that last word). However, she undoubtedly knows we do not have the hot, humid summers or the subzero winters with their blizzards. Also, we do not have sudden thunderstorms. You can look out and know whether to take your raincoat. Of course, this winter has been a bit strange with some days of mixed beautiful sunshine and showers, rain coming in with 40 to 50 mph winds and wet sand blowing to rooftop. But that is rare and people know when it may happen.

Helen also probably is worried about being so far from friends. Starting in Astoria there are Jane West Clark and husband. At West Lake your ~~cousin~~ niece, Marie. At Surf Pines Road, Russell Earl and Paul See and families. In Gearhart, Pauline Earl. In Seaside, Agnes and Me. On Beerman Creek Road, Bud and Elinore Johnson. In Tillamook, Chet West. In Salem, Helen West Conner. In Eugene, Marion Fulkerson. Tom and Dylis come up from California at least once a year. Carmen and Gilbert get here from Portland and Vancouver. Also, there still are a bunch of oldtimers such as Clarence Owen, John Dooley, Esther Mari Klock and lots of others you undoubtedly know. I rarely go to the stores or postoffice without meeting people I have known for years. One day I got to talking to a man who owns a vacation place down the street. When I asked him if he was a Harrison from the North Plains area, he said "NO" but a bit more talking and he told me his mother used to have George Adams take care of her house through the winter.

Undoubtedly you have already noticed the geneology information I have inclosed. Unfortunately, it is not as complete as I would like.

If you get a chance to go to Bennington, Vt., you may be able to close some of the gaps. For example: The DAR records show that Thomas West married a "Molly" (last name not listed). Aunt Rose listed her as Mary Joy but I don't know where Aunt Rose got that name. Also, one West who was PP&L manager here and a descendent from Thomas said he was the only West in Vermont. DAR records show two other Wests in the same company of Vermont Militia.

Agnes and I are planning a trip to England in September to visit Yorkshire from which her family came and Lincolnshire from which the Prescotts came. Looking at the maps we get the idea that we will not have to travel much farther in the two counties than it would be around Clatsop county.

If you find any information on where in England Thomas West came from we may be able to include that in our trip.

We do not know whether we can fit a trip to Scotia into our budget and timetable. I would like very much to get her to see Northern New York and New England but we may have to wait on that.

Re the Harrisons: Do you have a copy of the story of their journey in 1846 from Iowa to Oregon? If not, I'll send you one. Aunt Rose was a great collector of family legends and Bud may have some that I don't. Marion Fulkerson has a lot of info Aunt Daisy collected and Aunt Violet also was a great gatherer and Paul See undoubtedly has her papers.

It's hard to believe that the "boys" who visited me just a few years ago are ready to start college and high school. When you move out here they will have good opportunities. Clatsop Community College has some very good courses and Seaside school district has a very good superintendent. Of course, Paul See can tell you a lot more about the college and schools than I can. There's one thing about it. We do not have the desegregation problems here that they have in many of the big districts.

One other thing. Seaside High graduates have pretty regular reunions with two or three classes going together for one big shindig. This year, classes from '32 through '37 are going together with Agnes' class of '35 for a reunion in July.

Looking forward to more
cousins in Clatsop County,

Julian

Dear Jack,

Joyce and I would like very much to stop to see you on our way to England. However, we go from Portland to Seattle, change planes and then go by the "polar" route to London. Hudson's Bay is about the closest we would get to Seattle and from about 40,000 feet up that would be a bit of a big dive for an old coot like me.

Now for geneology---

In gathering material for our trip we got 7 books from the British consul in Portland. In one of them I found the name of the owner of a place at which Joyce' grandmother was born. He wrote him a letter and got a reply from his wife. He had said Joyce's grandmother, Mary E. Watson was born at Denbrath Priory. The lady wrote back that Mary E. Watson was not born in the Priory but may have been born in one of the numerous houses on the estate and she was checking church records to try to find out which one.

That reminded me that England did not start registering births in city, town or county records until about the 1860s. It also reminded me that such records were kept by the churches, not only in England but also in the colonies until the 1860s. I learned about that when I was doing investigations for security clearances back in New England in the early '40s. So, it is possible that the records on Thomas Hart and others in the family will be in the church in Castle Creek.

In 1950, my folks and I went to Castle Creek and visited with an elderly great aunt (as I recall) of my mother's. I do not recall and cannot find her name. However, a photograph I have shows her left arm amputated at about the elbow. As I recall, her house was on the east side of the main street leading to the hill north of town and about a block or two from the hill. The photograph shows a two-story house with porches at both levels across the street. It is possible that the town records could give you her name and a lead to another member of the family in the area. I realize it is an awful long shot and that you may not have time to chase it out.

Just found another paper in a genealogy file I have been building up. In 1896, Mary Anna Hayes Stackpole of Riverhead, N. Y., applied for the DAR and was accepted. She was the daughter of Caleb F. Hayes and Harriet W. Hart, both of Castle Creek. She was the wife of George F. Stackpole, who was a county judge in Riverhead. Their daughter later was a judge in Riverhead and, as I recall, never married. They also had a son who was a lawyer, in New York City i believe. Both of them probably are long dead but m be may have had a son who might have some info. Stackpole isn't a common name and may be worth a try.

If I run into anything else in paging through the volumes of letters and papers left by my father (but NOT before returning from the trip and MOVING) I'll send it on to you.

Got to get back finishing up the preparations for our takeoff tomorrow.

Hoping you find enough information about the family to make you feel the effort was really worth while,

Jim

Dear Mr. Guadagni:

I am a retired college educator and geologist in Oregon, whose grandfather Josiah West came to Oregon in the mid-1850's. Since I have a computer and access to the Internet, relatives have urged me to gather up scraps of family history that now exist only as faded letters and scribbled notes.

Several weeks ago we visited the Broome County, New York Historical Society to search for records of our Castle Creek ancestors north of Binghamton. They provided a wealth of information, including 1987 letters to and from Mrs. Sally L. Guadagno of Derby. I didn't find her name on the Internet people-finder, but your name popped up. Since Newport Center is apparently close to Derby, I'm taking a chance that you may be related.

Obviously, I'd like to know if you or she have any information about Thomas West, a redcoat of the Revolutionary War (who changed sides), and his descendents. Of course, I would be anxious to find how we might be related. Any information you might be able to provide would be greatly appreciated.

Dear Paul,

I hope you don't mind a first-name basis, it seems more relaxed & friendly.... you letter reached me (obviously!) and your skillful detective work in locating me, via my husband, is commendable..... I was surprised, and pleased, to hear from you.

I am interested in your grandfather (is this correct, or do you actually mean great-grandfather?) Josiah West who arrived in Oregon in the mid-1850's..... As I want to be absolutely sure we are dealing with the same West family, I need a little more info and a descent chart from yourself backward would be a big help to me....

In fairness to you, I must tell you that there is currently a LOT of incorrect data (both in print & in D.A.R. records) concerning three different men, named Thomas West, who were all here in Vt. during the early years, and I had a devil of a time straightening them out.... If, as you say, "your" Thomas West, was a redcoat (who changed sides) in the Rev. War, I fear that you are in the same mixed-up mess that I found myself in..... we can get to all of that in due time..... "my" Thomas West served in the Rev. War from N.H., not Vt.

My interest in Thomas West comes from the fact that he married Mary/Molly Joy, d/o Benjamin & Sarah (Cummings) Joy.... Mary/Molly Joy was a sister to my ancestor, Ephraim who mar. Elizabeth Leonard...

As you may know, Benjamin & Sarah (Cummings) Joy, were only mentioned in passing, on pg. 67 of the Joy Genealogy by Helen B.J. Lee; and this being the case, I (with help from other desc.) researched the whole family as a total unit..... it was a struggle every step of the way!

I'm going to close & get this off to you so you will know that your letter "found" me.... I'm not plugged-in to the Net, so you will have to take me via "snail-mail"..... Will be happy to give you any help that I can, all for now.....

Sally

P.S. I forgot to mention that I am NOT a professional genealogist & I do NOT charge for my help.... The only credentials I have are 30 yrs. experience in genealogical research & a passion for the preservation of the memory of all of our ancestors, even tho' I am not a Morman.

30 Dec. 1997

Dear Paul,

I received your family charts, which are a great help to me.... I do not have copies of the 11 letters that Josiah West wrote to his sisters in Castle Creek, N.Y. btwn. 1860-1900 and I would LOVE to have copies for my files, especially since they mention Mary SPEAR as the w/o Thomas West.... since receipt of your letter, I did some digging and I found the following: THOMAS WEST & MARY SPEAR mar. 12 Nov. 1772 Dudley, Worcester Co., Mass. v.r. This marriage record sheds a new light on the whole picture & it will require some research.

Back in 1987 I was contacted by a professional researcher in Ca. who had been hired by a woman who needed research done on her ancestors, Thomas West & Mary Joy, as the woman wanted to join The National Society of the Colonial Dames of America.... I assisted this "professional" researcher with everything I had on the Benj. Joy family, and we corresponded over several months, However, I could not get her to tell me the name of her client and/or where the client lived.... To make a long story short, the client had West Family Bible Records & I had to "badger" the researcher to get a copy of them & I finally did get them... I sat down with my magnifying glass & transcribed them and am sending you a copy of both the original & my transcription.... I think they will be of help to you even tho' they are not your direct line, and after studying them you will see where some of the errors were.....

Most & prob. all of the D.A.R. applications for membership are based upon the write-up by Harriet N. (West)(Hayes) Boardman in 1900..... It is full of errors & most of the confusing and conflicting data concerning Thomas West derives from this write-up. Harriet (West)(Hayes) Boardman was born in 1819, so she was only nine yrs. old when Thomas West died in 1828. Thomas West was in this country in 1772, therefore he was not an impressed English soldier who deserted the English & took sides with this country; it is possible that Thomas fought in the Battle of Bennington (Vt.) & she assumed that he lived & his son Josiah was born there, neither of which is true, nor is it true that son Josiah married there. Josiah West married Martha/Patty Doyen (also spelled Dawin, Doyne, Doyin & Doying) on 30 May 1793 at Plainfield, N.H. & Martha "Patty" was the dau. of Francis Doyen, and she was born 14 March 1772 at Pembroke, N.H. (See: Hist. of Pembroke, N.H. 11, 70-72). It is probable that Josiahs' brother Thomas, Jr. married Jane/Janette Doyen a sister of Martha/Patty. Thomas West was enumerated in the 1790 census at Plainfield, N.H. & in the 1800 census at Whitestown, Oneida Co., N.Y. Josiah West was in the 1800 census at Plainfield, N.H. & in the 1810 census at Williamstown, Orange Co., Vt. Josiahs' son William was not born in Vt., and William West mar. (1) 08 May 1817, Sarah Smith who died 10 Jan. 1829, ae. 28 Yrs.; he mar. (2) date unknown, Mary Smith (sister of Sarah?). I think that corrects the mistakes.....

I would like to know where both William & Mary (Smith) West died and are buried, if possible....

I'm going to close and get this in the mail.... I have more to send you but it will have to wait until another time....

All best regards,

Sally

20 Jan. 1998

Dear Paul,

I want to share some thoughts with you, and give you my reasons for believing that Mary/Molly, w/o Thomas West, is a d/o Benjamin & Sarah (Cummings) Joy.....

Now that you have copies of the West family Bible records, you will prob. agree with me that the Bible belonged to Josiah, Jr. and the majority of the entries were made by the same person, at the same time (about 1866)... of primary concern to us are these entries:

Thomas West mar. Molly Joy in Killingly, Conn. 1770
Thomas West born Bedfordshire, Eng. in 1741
Molly West born Killingly, Conn. in 1743

Because these entries only list the year (no month or day) it appears that the birth years for Thomas & Mary/Molly were computed from their AGE AT respective dates of death; and their year of marriage & place of marriage appears to be a "guess" based upon the known fact that son Josiah was born in Killingly in 1774. There is no official record of his birth in Killingly, however, the 1850 Federal census & the 1855 State census confirm his age & p.o.b. as Conn.

First of all, it is important to understand that both Molly & Polly are nicknames for Mary, and we placed Mary/Molly Joy as a d/o Benjamin & Sarah, due to the fact that they were married 10 June 1740 Rehoboth, Mass. and their first child, Mary, was bapt. there on 12 Apr. 1741.... Benjamin Joy remained in Rehoboth until at least 1749, and by 1752 he was in Killingly where he remained until about 1784 when he removed to Plainfield, Cheshire Co., N.H. We know that Benj's dau. Ruth (who mar. 1775 Killingly) John Wilson were in Plainfield, N.H. in 1776, and Benj's son Ephraim was also there then, and it appears that Thomas West arrived there at either the same time or shortly thereafter.

Benjamin Joy drew his will on 01 Apr. 1806 and it was proved 04 May 1810; the will is unusual inasmuch as Benj. only bequeathed to his living children, with no mention of the heirs of his deceased children, and he listed his daughters by their given names only, even tho' all of them were married except for Sarah, and he did not give places of residence for any of them. As dau. Mary was mentioned, we know that she was living in 1806.

There are several small "glitches" with Mary, none of which are considered too important, (1) Marys' tombstone, using her age at death, suggests that she was born in 1743; as we know that Benj. Joys' dau. Mary was born in Apr. 1741, she should have been 80 when she died... This discrepancy is not unusual in genealogy inasmuch as people in those days aften lost track of how old they were; info on tombstones is often incorrect and transcriptions of cemetery records are often incorrect; (2) except for Mary, there were marriage records at Killingly for all of Benj. Joys' children, btwn. 1763-1775, (dau. Abigail mar. at Plainfield, N.H.) and we have supposed that Mary could have married as early as 1757, the ceremony may have been conducted by a J.P., and having been born in 1741, it certainly makes Mary aged about 31 when she mar. 1772, Thomas West.

This, in turn, certainly leaves room for Mary to have been previously married to a man name Spear.....

To return to Thomas West, the "Annals of Castle Creek" pg. 10 (recollections of Mrs. Harriet N. Boardman) says that Josiah West, s/o Thomas, removed with their families from near Brattleboro, Vt. to Whitesboro, N.Y. and in 1814 to what is now Castle Creek.... Note that in another recollection of hers she says the family was in Bennington, Vt.!.... there is no indication that any of the West family ever lived in or near either Brattleboro OR Bennington, Vt. and according to the Bible records, Josiahs' son William was born 1795 in Deerfield, Oneida Co., N.Y. (Both Benjamin Joy & Thomas West were enumerated in the 1790 census at Plainfield, N.H.) Apparently, Josiah West returned to N.H. and Thomas & Mary West remained in N.Y. as they are in the 1800 census at Whitestown, Oneida Co., N.Y. (Whitesboro is a village within the township of Whitestown). It is important to realize that John & Ruth (Joy) Wilson left Plainfield, N.H. before 1790 and John Wilson died at Deerfield, N.Y. in 1792 & Ruth (Joy) Wilson re-married 1795, George Staples and they are in the 1800 census at Deerfield, N.Y. and Whitesboro/Whitestown and Deerfield, N.Y. are only about 5 miles from each other, and even tho' I have not been able to locate either Thomas West or George Staples in the 1810 N.Y. census, it is known that they were both still in N.Y. The movements of these people is an indication that they were related.....

The "problem" we have had trying to put the Thomas West family together lies in the fact that we only have bits & pieces of info to work with, and some of the extant info is incorrect & misleading!

I feel quite sure that Thomas & Mary West had sons Josiah, Thomas, Jr. and prob. Benjamin, as well as daus. Fanny & prob. Eunice... You have a Rachel on your list and she is new to me, so I will be and am anxious to know more about her.....

One small error on your family chart, that needs to be corrected, is the date of birth for Josiah, Jr. which you show as 3-25-1841, and he was actually born 15 Dec. 1804 and died 1892 (complete date not available) in Mich.

In the Hist. of Broome Co. (1885) by H.P. Smith, pg. 442ff, town of Chenango, N.Y., there is a transcript of a letter dated St. Clair, Mich., July 31, 1879, apparently written by Josiah West, Jr. (1804-1892) to his niece Harriet Boardman in Castle Creek, N.Y. I am trying to confirm that this letter is separate from the 11 letters that Josiah wrote to his sisters btwn. 1860-1900.....

Guess that sums it up for now.... I know this whole West/Joy lineage rests on a lot of circumstantial evidence and a convoluted set of circumstances, so if you have any questions, please ask!

Sincerely,

Sally Guadagni

Dear Sally:

Many thanks for the Bible notations. What a wealth of information! It fills a lot of gaps in my records. I am enclosing transcripts of the letters from Josiah III to his sisters, 1860-1900. While they obviously contain much that would be of little interest to you, there are some remarks that help fill in the gaps.

For the life of me, I can't find the reference to Mary Spear that brought about my inquiry. I have been afraid to discard any scraps of old notes, and the stack has become unwieldy. When I find it, I will send it on if it is of any real value.

My listing of Thomas/Joy's direct descendants included Rachel only because there was a raging controversy among my aunts and mother about whether there was a Rachel and a Benjamin in that family. Obviously there was a Benjamin.

There are four Josiahs in my branch of the family. My grandfather was Josiah III, and he had a son Willis Josiah. I think there is a reference to his uncle Josiah II (or Jr.) in his letters to Harriet. I'm enclosing a photo of Josiah III and his wife Lamira Harrison West, taken about 1900.

Thank you again for all the valuable information. I'll send you the Spear reference when I find it.

Regards,
